#CollabCollide

Join us for the FinTech Australia + Next Money Collab/Collide Summit 2017, at Intersekt, and be immersed in the ideas shaping Australian FinTech influencing the world.

Financial technology has evolved into a powerful global movement that has brought together entrepreneurs, technology giants and big banks to develop ideas and innovations that can harness the power of the digital age to create better, sustainable, financial services for people across the globe and for future generations to come.

The Summit is the highlight event of the Intersekt Festival and will bring the whole FinTech Ecosystem together - Startups, Corporates, Government and Regulators.

Collab/Collide17 will convene the Australian and APAC FinTech community. Taking inspiration from the expansion of FinTech globally, the summit will welcome the world's leading authorities, from innovators, institutions and investors to policy makers, regulators and international trade bodies.

The 2 days will feature high-quality keynotes, mentor sessions, fireside chats, panels, startup showcases, pitches and case studies from entrepreneurs and FinTech professionals across the ecosystem, plus the Collab/Collide Expo. This is the preeminent national event for the Australian FinTech industry.

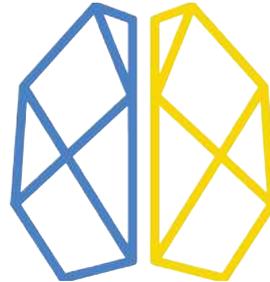

"The conference will connect, engage, inform, educate and provide an opportunity for attendees to further build the Australian FinTech community on a national and international scale."

Vanessa Ronan-Pearce, Director of Events and Partnerships, FinTech Australia and Program Director for Intersekt.

AGENDA

DAY 1

Thursday 2 November 2017

7:00 – 8:00	REGISTRATION OPEN
8:00–8:20	Get The Most Out of Your Day! – Pre-event Networking Session Julia Palmer (Business Networking Academy) Do you know the best way to network, make the right connections and build the necessary relationship to grow your business? Attend this session to become an expert networker.
8:20 – 8:30	Summit MC - Chloe James Group Media Director – RFi Group & Presenter at Sky News Australia Welcome Address Opening Message from Danielle Szetho, FinTech Australia CEO, Simon Cant, FinTech Australia Chairman and Rob Findlay, Next Money CEO
8:30 – 9:00	Federal Government Address The Hon. Scott Morrison MP, Fed Treasurer of Australia Followed by In Conversation with Simon Cant (Reinventure and FinTech Australia)
PLENARY MORNING SESSIONS 1
9:00– 9:30	INTERNATIONAL KEYNOTE: Open banking, digital identity and artificial intelligence - Why IS_A_PERSON will be the most valuable credential of all David Birch (Director, Consult Hyperion) – UK Followed by fireside chat with Victoria Richardson (AusPayNet)  We are rapidly approaching a world where financial services is being stripped right back to its core; to data, patterns and algorithms. Our finances are increasingly done through digital channels – and our ability to do so is entirely dependent on being able to prove that we are who we say we are. So how might this play out when the machines hold all our information, and are increasingly becoming the agents for our daily lives?
9:30–10:10	WOMEN IN FINTECH Clara Durodie (Cognitive Finance Group), Emma Weston (AgriDigital), Shahirah Gardner (Finch), Siobhan Hayden (HashChing), Julia French (Founder for Founders) Moderator: Chloe James (RFi + Sky News)     A growing body of research suggests that organisations founded by women or that take leadership roles by empowering women in FinTech are more innovative and return better financial results. In this session we will hear from just a few of the exceptional women in fintech making a difference and bridging the gender gap.
10:10–10:30	INTERNATIONAL KEYNOTE: Fintech for financial inclusion in Asia and beyond Nina Zhou (CreditEase Fintech Fund) – Hong Kong Followed by fireside chat w Jack Quigley (CrowdfundUP) The unique combination of a geographically dispersed population, rapid digital infrastructure development and accelerating economic growth has made Asia a dynamic hotbed for fintech innovation. Unencumbered by legacy financial infrastructure, fintech companies in Asia are re-imagining and transforming the financial services stack, creating digital customer experiences that were made for mobile and a new generation of Asian consumer. Nina Zhou from leading Hong Kong Fintech fund CreditEase will share her view on these trends and innovations, and together with Simon Cant from Reinventure Fund, Nina will discuss where opportunities still exist for traditional firms and investors.

10:30 – 10:50

MORNING TEA

MORNING SESSION 2 - The Global Landscape

11:00- 11:30	INTERNATIONAL KEYNOTE: Lessons, trends and the new “Golden Era” of FinTech Ron Suber, (Executive Chairman, Prosper. The Godfather of FinTech) - USA Followed by a Q&A with Stuart Stoyan (MoneyPlace) As founding CEO and “Chairman Emeritus” of the USA’s first ever Peer-to-peer Lender, Prosper, Ron Suber has become the industry’s go-to guy. He’s personally invested in more than 15 fintech companies and serves as an official advisor to six of them, at last count. Returning to Australia for only the second time, the “Godfather of FinTech” will share new observations and lessons about what’s happening in fintech, innovation and online lending around the world.
11:30 - 12:10	STRATEGY PANEL DISCUSSION: Global Finance, Disrupted Megan Caywood (Starling), Kaarel Kuddu (Transferwise), Ron Suber, (Prosper) Alan Shields (RFi Group), Melisande Waterford (APRA) Moderator: Danielle Szetho (FinTech Australia) Banks’ core competitive advantages are being eroded – and they face some tough choices if they are to stay competitive in the digital age. This extraordinary panel will discuss what’s going to be left in the bank stack once everything becomes modular – can regional banks compete with neo banks? Or might the next-gen Asian or US digital financial giants disrupt everything? How are regulators expecting this to unfold, and what are they doing to prepare for this new era of disrupted global finance?
12:10 - 12:40	FIRESIDE CHAT: Behind the Headline Steven Ji - Sequoia Interviewed by: Danny Gilligan (Reinventure/Data Republic) While other investors take a laser-focused approach to the AI sector, Sequoia’s portfolio includes more broadly defined AI firms. After screening hundreds of AI teams and start-ups, Sequoia has zeroed in on two key parameters when evaluating an AI investment’s potential: application and data. In this session hear from Sequoia partner Yue (Steven) Ji, as he delves into the logic behind the venture firm’s AI investment strategy and interest in Australian fintech.

12:40 - 14:00

LONG LUNCH - INTERACTIVE NETWORKING LUNCH

	MAIN STAGE	STREAM 1	STREAM 2
14:00 - 14:30	Digital Banking in Australia - Case Study: Ferocia and Bendigo Bank Dominic Pym (Ferocia/Alt) + Marnie Baker (Bendigo Bank) Interviewed by: David Birch (Consult Hyperion, UK) DESCRIPTION: Digital banking is not digitised banking: it means a rethink of products, processes and services for the new competitive environment. Hear how an Australian regional challenger bank has partnered with an innovative fintech company to do just that, and their plans for the future in the new Alt brand.	Soft Skills Masterclass presented by Claire Theophane (Theo + Theo), Paul Naphtali (Rampersand) Melissa Mack (Media + Capital Partners)	Trailblazers of Australian FinTech Emma Weston (AgriDigital) Anthony Millet (BrickX) Jack Quigley (CrowdfundUp) Charlotte Petris (Timelio) Some say that success can only be built off the back of many, many failures. These leading Australian fintech founders will share stories about their journeys to build incredible businesses.
14:30-15:10	Open Data Panel: Time to get personal Craig Ridley (Accenture), Tommy Mermelshtayn (Zip Money) Danny Gilligan (Data Republic), Luke Howes (Proviso) Moderator: Kate Wilson (RFi Group) Assuming we’re implementing an Open Banking regime in 2018, have we got the balance right between consumer rights and economic growth powered by data? Where does the data’s value lie – is it in the raw data itself, or in the insights? Could more loosely defined data standards become a competitive advantage for Europe, China and the US? And who should be leading the charge – government, industry, consumers or the free market?	Blockchain Applications in China Yuguang Han (Senior Technology Product Manager, JD.COM) and Andrew Han (Deputy GM, Ginkoo Financial Technology Group) Moderator: Danielle Szetho (FinTech Australia) China is undoubtedly the fastest growing market for Blockchain innovation, and these are two companies that are leading the charge. Yuguang Han from China’s largest retailer, JD.com, will present about their Blockchain Traceability Project and Andrew Han from Ginkoo Financial Technology Group will share examples of Blockchain applications they are building with some of China’s banks.	Women in FinTech Mentoring Masterclass Julia French (Founder for Founders), Siobhan Hayden (Hashching), Jo Burston (Rare Birds) Lynda Coker (FinTech Mentor) Moderator: Madeleine Grummet (Girled World) Women represent less than 24% of the Australian fintech workforce. So we’ve found 5 incredible women to help drive that figure higher – one talented woman at a time

	MAIN STAGE	STREAM 1	STREAM 2
15:10 – 15:40	Money where your mouth is: VC's predict what's next for fintech Simon Cant (Reinventure), Nina Zhou (CreditEase), Clara Durodie (Cognitive Finance Group), Stuart Richardson (Adventure Capital) Moderator: Alan Tsen (Stone & Chalk/FinTech Victoria) After a fivefold increase between 2012 and 2015 to nearly $15 billion, fintech has emerged as one of the hottest sectors for VC money, and Q2 2017 data points to more growth ahead. In a space where well-funded tech innovation is rapidly reshaping the centuries-old finance sector, our panel of investors and analysts share their growth predictions for fintech.	InsurTech Panel: It's not the Data that counts; it's how you use it Fiona Macgregor (TAL) Charmian Holmes (The Fold Legal) Perry Abbott (Friendsurance) With more data available than ever before, the insurance value chain is collapsing. How can Insurers defend their business lines if important data is no longer proprietary?

15:40 – 16:10 AFTERNOON TEA

16:10 – 16:50	Digital Identity and KYC: Breaking The Deadlock Scott Williamson (PRIMEiD), Stuart Hosford (e4), Michael Dowling (Accenture), Cameron Gough (Aust Post), Victoria Richardson (AusPayNet) Moderator: Lisa Schutz (Verifier) We all know that KYC is complex and expensive and something needs to be done. This session will ask, does digital identity really help or do we need a rethink of KYC, AML, CTF and PEP in a world of big data, machine learning and artificial intelligence.	Product Development and Going Global Masterclass with Kaarel Kuddu (Transferwise) Kaarel is Global Product Lead at TransferWise and is responsible for product expansion and development around the world, with a particular focus on expansion into APAC markets.	Building a World-Class Tech team Masterclass Julia Bearzatto (Assembly Payments) Julia is Head of Technology for Assembly Payments – a new breed of Payments platform that's taking over the world. She'll discuss her approach to technology leadership, and operational best practice when it comes to building a world class tech team.
---------------	---	---	---

16:50 – 17:20	NEO BANK Keynote- The Starling Story Megan Caywood (Starling Bank) Followed by Q&A with Luke Howes (Proviso) Billed by the digital-only challenger bank as a new concept in banking, the Starling Marketplace puts products from other fintech providers within "an easily browsed ecosystem" accessible within the Starling app. Hear from Starling's Chief Product Officer, Megan Caywood, on the banks of the future. 	Human Centred Design Masterclass Harriet Wakelam (IAG), Tarra Von Amerongen (Fjord/Accenture) From 'start ups' to 'end ups' - This session will focus on human-centred design processes how to integrate innovations through to big business.	Information Session: Enhanced Regulatory Sandbox Shellie Davis (Australian Treasury), Naomi Bourne (Australian Treasury), Nik Wahi (Australian Treasury) – TBC The Australian Government has recently released exposure draft legislation and regulations to create an enhanced regulatory sandbox to support businesses to test innovative FinTech products and services.
